Descripciorn del circuito:

The northern coast of the Valparaíso region offers a beautiful coastal road with fishing coves and small villages on the shores of the Pacific Ocean. Cachagua, Maitencillo, Zapallar and Papudo offer beautiful views of the sea and the countryside a combination that tourists from all over the world will appreciate

The Natural Monument Island Cachagua created in 1989 is in front of the spa of the same name. It is a separate island off the coast, a paradise for sea birds and is also called "The Island of the Penguins". There are two special varieties of penguins (Humboldt and Magellanic), which are unique in this part of the Chilean coast, as well as large pelicans (Pelecanus thagus), other varieties such as Yacate ducks (Phalacrocorax olivaceus) and gulls (Larus dominicanus), Accompanied also by an abundant population of marine otters or chunchungos. This scenario was declared for its undoubted beauty Sanctuary of Nature.
