Circuit Description :

We travel the interior of the region passing by its towns neighboring towns and fields. At 60 km from Valparaíso is Olmué "the folklore capital of Chile" village full of typical Chilean traditions. Here we will have a panoramic view of its fields and you will be able to visit El Patagual, place recognized by the Festival of the Huaso de Olmué that takes place every year.

We will go on a gentle walk through the La Campana National Park, declared a World Biosphere Reserve by UNESCO. It has a diverse native forest where the Canelo, Lingue, Arrayán, Quisco and Colliguay predominate. Charles Darwin in 1834 ascended to the summit and discovered the place where Chile can be seen from mountain range to sea: from Cerro Aconcagua in the Cordillera de Los Andes, valleys and Valparaíso with their boats in the sea.

We will visit a nursery of beautiful plants and handicrafts and we will have the opportunity to visit an artisan chichería.

Lunch (entrance + ground dish + dessert + tip. No Tour includes drinks).
