Descripción del circuito:

Enjoy the panoramic tour of the spas of Algarrobo and El Quisco, which along with other small coves form a coastline full of poetry and charm where several Chilean poets lived and created their legacy, Tour including the famous writer Pablo Neruda (Nobel Prize for Literature, 1971).

We will go to Isla Negra where the most famous house of the Chilean poet Pablo Neruda (one of the three house-museum that exists) is located, is a dream place, a house conceived by the poet right in front of the sea, beautiful architecture and contains collections Unique objects brought from around the world.

Visit Valparaíso and fall in love with this city declared World Heritage by UNESCO. Valparaiso has the form of a natural amphitheater facing the sea; Almost all the city hangs from the hills. Travel in one of its traditional lifts to reach the May 21 stroll and its magnificent viewpoint.

We will visit the Atkinson and Gervasoni walks full of history of foreign immigrants who arrived in Valparaiso when this important port was considered "La Joya del Pacífico" (before the opening of the Panama Canal). Visit to the esplanade of Sotomayor Square that reminds of the heroes of Iquique and the war of the Pacific. We will visit the place of inspiration of the Chilean poet Pablo Neruda in Valparaiso, his house museum "La Sebastiana" (Nobel Prize for Literature, 1971).
