Descripciorn del circuito:

Tour from Viña del Mar or Valparaíso to Santiago passing through the beautiful valleys of Casablanca and Curacaví. In Santiago, travel through the capital of Chile, visiting its civic and historical center among them The Metropolitan Cathedral and Plaza de Armas. Tour the Central Market and be aware of the identity and festive atmosphere that makes this place a unique place and one of the best markets in the world.

Passengers can choose a tour option: (Tour includes ticket):

- House-Museum "La Chascona" by the Chilean poet Pablo Neruda
The House was started in 1953, for Matilde Urrutia, her secret love of the time. In his honor the baptism "La Chascona", that was the nickname that it gave to her to him by its abundant reddish hair. There is a portrait of the Mexican muralist Diego Rivera, who paints a portrait of Matilde with two heads. If you look with attention at her hair, you see the profile of Neruda, the lover still hidden, appear diffused. This is one of the pieces shown today in the museum house.

- Mirador of Cerro San Cristobal:

It is 880 meters high and is an excellent place to observe Santiago (depending on the weather). San Cristobal Hill is part of Metropolitan Park, the city's largest urban park (in fact it is one of the largest urban parks in the world, larger than Central Park in New York and even Hyde Park in New York.)

Lunch in Central Market (fish and seafood) Tour includes appetizer, starter, main course, dessert, coffee or infusorn, drink or juice or glass of wine and tip.
