

FD – Santiago and its Wines: City + Concha y Toro

Code : E-VFD-09

Duration : 10 - 11 hours

Places to visit : Santiago City and

Hours : Monday a Sunday. The Maipo Valley

Tour includes : Authorized vehicle + professional driver + Tour guide + ticket La Chascona Museum (Monday closed) or ascent to Cerro San Cristobal + Visit to Concha y Toro with tour and wine tasting (2 per person) and a glass of wine + lunch at Mercado Central (fish and seafood) Tour includes appetizer, starter, starter, dessert, coffee or infusiorn, drink or juice or glass of wine and tip.

Circuit Description:

Tour from Viña del Mar or Valparaiso to Santiago passing through the beautiful valleys of Casablanca and Curacaví.

Viña Concha y Toro is an icon of the Maipo Valley and of the worldwide wine production. Its old wineries gave Stars from a legend of Casillero Del Diablo, and the Concha y Toro vineyards today are part of the Chilean wine tradition. This vineyard was founded in 1883, it is today one of the most important wineries in the world.

Here we are going to do a tour to know in detail the process of elaboration of the wine and we are going to taste them (2 wines).

In Santiago, travel through the capital of Chile, visiting its civic and historical center among them The Metropolitan Cathedral and Plaza de Armas. Tour the Central Market and be aware of the identity and festive atmosphere that makes this place a unique place and one of the best markets in the world.

Passengers can choose a tour option (Tour includes ticket):

- Casa-Museo "La Chascona" by the Chilean poet Pablo Neruda: The beginning to build in 1953, for Matilde Urrutia, his secret love of then. In his honor the baptism "La Chascona", that was the nickname that it gave to her to him by its abundant reddish hair. There is a portrait of the Mexican muralist Diego Rivera, who paints a portrait of Matilde with two heads. If you look with attention at her hair, you see the profile of Neruda, the lover still hidden, appear diffused. This is one of the pieces shown today in the museum house.

- Mirador of Cerro San Cristobal: It is 880 meters high and is an excellent place to observe Santiago (depending on the weather). San Cristobal Hill is part of Metropolitan Park, the city's largest urban park (in fact it is one of the largest urban parks in the world, larger than Central Park in New York and even than Hyde Park in New York.)

Lunch in Central Market (fish and seafood) Tour includes aperitif, starter, main course, dessert, coffee or infusiorn, drink or juice or glass of wine and tip.